

18 November 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Security

SUBJECT : [REDACTED] Where's What

STATINTL

STATINTL 1. Per my discussion with you I telephonically contacted [REDACTED] on 18 November 1975 and quoted from the recent [REDACTED] STATINTL
[REDACTED] memorandum which suggested that he, [REDACTED] had raised STATINTL
a copyright problem. [REDACTED] confirmed with me that this STATINTL was a totally inaccurate statement and at no point in his STATINTL discussions with [REDACTED] did he raise a copyright issue. STATINTL
Erv reminded me that he had called [REDACTED] at the undersigned's suggestion, and he mentioned that there was a very brief STATINTL telephonic discussion from the background of the problem.
In substance, [REDACTED] took the position that there was no copyright problem. He did make a statement to the effect that someone might look into the situation from a legal standpoint.

STATINTL 2. It is interesting to note that [REDACTED] volunteered STATINTL to meet with OLC and OGC representatives in order to provide background information on the overall problem. He specifically made reference to the Jack Blake note of 1972 which indicated that there was an interest in the copyright issue.
There has been no follow-up discussion, and at no time have STATINTL [REDACTED] suggested a meeting in order to review the problem.

3. As you may recall, I had earlier briefed [REDACTED] STATINTL that the position being taken by the Office of Security was that the copyright issue was a legal problem and not a security issue.
